Day 02

Visit Ljubljana and Bled Lake with local guide (full day trip)

Breakfast at Hotel

Ljubljana is often called a European jewel or described as a small blend of Prague and Amsterdam. It is a 'town with a soul', as visitors often comment. This vibrant old town is concentrated along the Ljubljanica River, and the castle on a hill still looks like it is protecting the romantic city below. On this tour you will stroll along medieval streets, admire an interesting blend of different architectural styles on several famous promenades along the river, discover some of the Ljubljana's hidden monuments, relax in the city's greenery, and hear stories and fairytales that connect the present and the past.

Bled Lake guided tour

Bled is famous for the Lake Bled, which makes it a major tourist attraction. With its surroundings and natural beauties, it represents one of the nicest alpine holiday spots which is known by the mild climate and thermal lake water. Beauty reflection of the mountains in the lake, sun, peace and fresh air, make incredible feelings in visitors at every time of the year. The lake surrounds Bled Island, the only natural island in Slovenia.

Visit of the Plitvice National Park with local guide

Breakfast at the hotel

Check – Out from Hotel

Transfer to Plitvice National Park is one of the most beautiful and best-preserved national parks in the country. This is why the entire lakes and surrounding area were declared a national park in 1949 and are listed on the UNESCO's list of World Heritage Sites because of its exceptional beauty. It is a valley situated between high forested mountains in which lie, one below another, a string of sixteen beautiful lakes of crystal blue and green waters. Fed by small streams and brooks, they spill into each other in 92 foaming cascades and thundering waterfalls. The lakes themselves cover about 2 square kilometers and the entire national park covers 200 square kilometers. The Plitvice lakes' scenery will simply delight you regardless whether you are walking the paths and wooden bridges, taking a boat ride or just taking photographs.

Day 04

Split and Trogir sightseeing tour with local guide

Breakfast at the hotel

The Split city tour will take you along the Old City to visit main sights: the old town of Split is built on and around the spectacular Roman Palace erected by the Roman Emperor Diocletian (born in Salona – today's Solin) in the 4th century. The walking tour starts with a visit to the cellars of the Palace that are still very well preserved. The cellars offer a good view at how the life in the Palace was organized. The Cathedral St. Dujice is a complex of a church, formed from an Imperial Roman mausoleum, with a bell tower; strictly the church is dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and the bell tower to Saint Dujice. Together they form the Cathedral of St. Dujice.

Transfer to Trogir.

Get a real insider's look at Trogir on this guided walking tour of this UNESCO-protected coastal town near Split. Stroll the streets of Trogir with a professional guide learning the backstory about significant landmarks and the history of this ancient town on the Dalmatian Coast. Trogir's best sight is the Cathedral of St Lawrence (Katedrala sv. Lovrijenac) on which building work started in 1213 on a site where a previous cathedral once stood; the main part of the cathedral was completed in 1250. The cathedral's bell tower was built between the 14th and 16th centuries, and can be climbed to see fantastic views from the top. A must see within the cathedral is the Chapel of St John, built in 1468, and which is considered the best Renaissance sight in Dalmatia. Part of the city walls, built between the 13th and 14th centuries, are visible today on the southern side of the city. In the middle of the city wall is the city gate, which was built in 1593.

Day 05

Zadar city sightseeing tour with local guide

Breakfast at the hotel

Although it's the largest metropolis in northern Dalmatia, Zadar is perhaps not as well-known as other Croatian cities. Despite this fact, Zadar offers a wealth of attractions, and it's an exceptionally easy city to explore on foot, thanks in part to its many fine marble pedestrian-friendly streets. In addition to its historic old town center, Zadar boasts splendid medieval churches and Roman ruins, including the famous Church of St. Donat built on the site of the former ancient Roman forum. The Promenade, which runs down Obala Kralja Petra Kresimira IV, is also perfect for a gentle stroll as you soak up the surroundings, installed along Zadar's seafront in 2005 and now one of Croatia's most popular art installations, the fun Sea Organ is well worth a visit. In essence a giant musical instrument that's played by the action of the waves.
