Proceed for city tour to Mahe'. Here, you will be introduced to myriad attractions such as Botanical Garden: A guided tour to this garden will help you explore the widespread flora and fauna. The colossal coco de mer (French for 'coconut of the sea') is among the island's most precious endemic plants. Its seeds are the largest and heaviest in the world and were believed to be packed with healing powers. You will also visit the indigenous wildlife such as Aldabra giant land tortoises and fruit bats or Seychelles flying fox.

Now you can go shopping at the Esplanade souvenir kiosks and buy home gifts. Other attractions that will keep you intrigued today are – National Library: Since 1978, the Library has expanded into more specialized services such as the Children's Section, the Reference Section, and a special collection on Indian Ocean among others.
